About this course

The overarching aims of the qualifications are to develop knowledge, understanding and skill in coaching and/or mentoring, so these techniques can be used effectively with a wide range of individuals in and across organisations operating in different sectors. The qualifications will establish the connection between coaching, mentoring and the achievement of personal effectiveness, professional performance and organisational goals.

Who it is for

Experienced professionals, usually aged 21 and above, who coach staff as part of their role in a business or education setting.

What you will study

Mandatory Units

- Principles and Practices of Coaching and Mentoring (11 credits)
- Personal Development for Coaches and Mentors (8 credits)

Pathway Unit (choose one)

- Pathway 1: Coaching for Business/Organisational Improvement (8 credits)
- Pathway 2: Coaching Education Professionals (8 credits)

Where it leads

Successful completion of the ATHE Level 6 Certificate in Coaching enables learners to progress into or within employment and/or continue their further study, including the ATHE Level 6 Diploma in Coaching and Mentoring or relevant ATHE Level 7 qualifications in management.
